PUBLIC MEETING

Organised by Greater Manchester Humanists

Tuesday 19 June 2012

7.00pm–8.30pm

Friends Meeting House

Mount St, Manchester, M2 5NS

Living good lives without religion – find out more!

Ask a panel of Humanists about their beliefs - including why, with no supernatural powers or sacred texts to guide us, we have to take responsibility for our own lives and actions . . . and for the world we live in.

Chair: Guy Otten

Duncan Battman – Humanist ceremonies

Nayyar Naqvi – fatalism and its contrast to Humanism

Richard Scorer – church/state separation, including some current legal cases

Carole Truman – Everyday Humanism

ALL WELCOME - FREE ADMISSION - but advance booking appreciated

(A collection will be taken for the Uganda Humanist Schools Trust)
